The petitioner has appeared in person and he says that time given by the trial Court for vacating the premises has already been expired during pendency of appeal. The trial Court has given 30 days' time on 12.3.2018 and he dragged the case before the Appellate Court for almost one year when on 20.3.2019 his appeal has also been dismissed. He has no case on merits, he however, says that Ex. No.18/2018 is pending in which order has been passed to vacate the premises. He seeks 2/3 days' time for vacating the premises and therefore, it is ordered that if writ of possession has been issued with police aid that may be executed after 72 hours but not before Friday i.e 10.06.2019. The Executing Court ensure that if premises is not vacated without further delay execution with police aid will be issued on Friday on execution on the same day.

With the above observation, this constitution petition is disposed of alongwith listed applications.
