Muhammad Ali Mazhar, J: Mr. Ashraf Ali Butt, Advocate has submitted the comments of respondent No.5. Learned Addl. A.G. has also filed comments of respondents Nos.1 to 3. The learned counsel for the petitioner argued that basically at the time of execution of conveyance deed with regard to the subject property inadvertently the word 'extension' was added in the description of the property. For the purpose of rectification, though no deed of rectification was registered, but an application was moved to the Inspector General of Registrars on 01.04.2019 which is pending. The learned counsel for Cantonment Board Clifton (CBC) and D.H.A. both jointly stated that if the correction is made by the Registrar, then they will also make proper amendment in their record. Mr. Muhammad

Ali Lakhani submits that since the application is pending before the Inspector General of Registrars, therefore, directions may be issued to him to decide the pending application. The learned Addl.
