17.08.2018

Mr. Muhammad Aziz Khan, Advocate for the plaintiffs

1&2. Deferred.

3. Through the instant application counsel intends to make certain amendments in the plaint in wake of death of the Plaintiff. Counsel contends that these amendments are necessary in order to have the matter fully adjudicated by this Court. As none is appearing for the defendants for quite some time, no rebuttal/objection/counter to this application has been filed, application in these circumstances is allowed. Let the required amendments be brought in the plaint.

4. Counsel through the instant application seeks this Court's permission to delete Defendant Nos.11 and 12 stating that they are no more required since the alleged Power of Attorney is not denied by Defendant No.10, no rebuttal/counter/objection has come forward in the last seven months. Resultantly, the application is allowed.
