2.	For hearing of Main Case

16.01.2018

Mr. Muhammad Ramzan, advocate for the petitioner.
Mr. Aslam Butt, DAG.
SIP Nazar M. Mangrio, P.S Sukhan, Malir Karachi.

Compliance report filed by the I.O is taken on record.

The petitioner has invoked the constitutional jurisdiction of this Court for direction to the Respondents No.1 & 2 that name of Respondents No.6 to 8 may be put on the ECL because Respondents No.6 to 8 are facing trial in Crime No.251/2015 and 241/2015 of PS Sukhan, District Malir, Karachi. On inquiry from the Court that how the fundamental rights of the petitioner is being infringed by not putting the names of the accused on ECL. He has no answer; however, he says that the apprehension is that Respondents No.6 to 8 may run away from the country, it may be jeopardized the case of the petitioner. The respondents till date have not been arrested in the two FIRs and prosecution has yet to arrest them. It is not violation of any of the fundamental right of the petitioner nor it is fundamental right of the petitioner that names of private respondents No.6 to 8 be put on ECL. The petition is not maintainable. However, official respondents are directed to act in accordance with law and make out all efforts to arrest the respondent No.6 to 8 as soon as possible.

In view of the above, instant petition stands dismissed alongwith listed application.
