Muhammad Ali Mazhar, J: Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has challenged the order dated 21.05.2013 whereby the Commissioner Inland Revenue suspended the Sales Tax Registration of the petitioner with further directions for initiation of enquiry for the purpose of black listing. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that during pendency of this petition, the issue of black listing was challenged in the appeal and at present tribunal has passed order in favour of the petitioner hence neither any suspension of Sale Tax Registration nor any issue of black listing is in field.

Mr. Muhammad Hussain, Advocate holding brief for Mr. Iqbal Khurram, Advocate for the Respondent No. 4 who is stated to be busy before another bench. However, in view of the clear statement this petition has served its purpose which is disposed of accordingly alongwith pending application(s).
