Muhammad Ali Mazhar, J: Basically the issue raised by the petitioner is that his father's name is Muhammad Amin Mian but in the matric certificate his father's name has been mentioned as Muhammad Ahsan for which he has approached this court for some correction. The learned counsel for the petitioner has also filed the copies of birth certificate and PRC to show that in all documents his father's name is Muhammad Amin but not Muhammad Ahsan. The replies of the respondents are already on record. The petitioner has also produced earlier the photocopies of Nikahnama of his father, B Form and affidavits of his father and mother Mrs. Azra Ameen for verifying the actual name. The learned counsel for the respondents submits that if the petitioner wants the change of his father's name, he may approach to the civil court for declaration. Since various documents are already available on record to show that father's name of the petitioner is Muhammad Ameen rather than Muhammad Ahsan, however, we leave it to the fine sense of judgment of the respondent Nos.2 to 4 to examine all relevant documents which the petitioner will produce once again before the competent authority thereafter if everything is found in order to the utmost satisfaction, the necessary correction may be made by the Board in the academic testimonials. Petition is disposed of accordingly.
