1. For orders on office objection as at "A"
2. For hearing of main case

18.02.2020

Mr. Ovais Hameed Baloch, advocate for the petitioner.

These petitions are arising out of suit for maintenance filed by the respondents who are obviously the wife and children of the petitioner. The grievance of the petitioner is that it was an exparte decree and he has not been given chance to contest the matter. By contesting the matter he would only be able to re-settle the maintenance of his eight children by the trial Court. The trial Court has only calculated Rs.45,000/- per month for the entire family wife and all the children. Therefore, if he seriously wants to contest the matter in which even this amount may be enhanced, the case is remanded to the trial Court subject to deposit of the decreetal amount already payable by him before the trial Court before entering appearance by filing written statement. Half of the amount to be deposited by the petitioner may be withdrawn by the respondents. However, if the exact decreetal amount is not deposited within 15 days from today this petition shall be deemed to have been dismissed and Executing Court may act accordingly.
