30.04.2020

Mr. Moazam Ali advocate for the petitioner.

1. Urgency granted.
2. Exemption granted subject to all just exceptions.
- 3-4. Petitioner in his prayer clause “i” submits that recovery of anti-dumping duty imposed through final determination may be stayed till decision of the appeal. When we asked learned counsel to show the memo of appeal, he shown us page 125 i.e. Appeal No. 267 of 2018 filed by some different appellants and the learned counsel admits that present petitioner has not filed any appeal against the final determination. He also pointed out earlier interim orders passed by this court but in both the orders in fact the petitioners’ appeal was pending which was not being fixed for hearing and the stay application was also not taken up by the Anti-Dumping Tribunal Islamabad for some order. In this case the matter is quite distinguishable where the present petitioner has not filed any appeal before the Anti-Dumping Appellate Tribunal. After arguing at some length, learned counsel does not press this petition, however, he submits that the petitioner will file appeal before the Anti-Dumping Appellate Tribunal at Islamabad against the final determination along with stay application. In view of this statement, petition is disposed of accordingly along with pending application.
