Mr.Abdul Moiz Jafferii, Advocate for the Petitioner.
Mr.Basil Nabi Malik, Advocate for the Respondent No.2
Mr.Hussain Bohra, Assistant Attorney General.

Muhammad Ali Mazhar, J: The petitioner has precisely prayed for the restraining order against the respondent Nos.2 and 5 from encashing/honouring the bid bond of Rs.6,702,500 bearing Guarantee No.001/19/507/LG/TC and directions have also been sought against respondent No.2 to return the bid bond to the petitioner and recall the warning letter issued to the petitioner. Further directions have been sought against the respondent No.2 to act strictly in accordance with the Public Procurement Rules, 2004 in all tenders floated by them.

2. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 on instructions received by him submits that the Management of respondent No.2 has decided to withdraw the warning letter as well as encashment notice impugned in this petition and so far as the particular tender in issue, which is subject matter of this petition, they have agreed that they will strictly act in accordance with Public Procurement Rules, 2004.

3. In view of the above statement, the petition is disposed of along with pending application.
