1. For orders on office objection
2. For hearing of main case.

05.12.2019.

Mr. Muhammad Yaseen M. Khaskheli, advocate along with applicant.

Ms. Sana Memon, A.P.G for the State.

=

Irshad Ali Shah J;- It is alleged that the applicant was found in possession of gutka / mainpuri an injurious / poisonous substance intending to spread infection / disease likely to be dangerous / poisonous to human lives, for that he was booked and reported upon by the police.

2. The applicant on having been refused pre arrest bail by learned 2nd Additional Sessions Judge, Sanghar has sought for the same from this Court by way of instant application under Section 498 Cr.P.C.

3. It is contended by learned counsel for the applicant that the applicant being innocent has been involved in this case falsely by the police without any lawful justification and malafidely. By contending so, he sought for pre-arrest bail for the applicant on bail on point of further enquiry and malafide.

4. Learned A.P.G. for the State has opposed to grant of pre arrest bail to the applicant by contending that the offence which he has committed is affecting the society at large.

5. I have considered the above arguments and perused the record.

6. All the penal sections applied in case are bailable, except one under section 337-J PPC, its applicability requires determination at trial, there is no independent witness to the incident, the case has finally been challaned and there is no apprehension of tempering with the evidence on the part of applicant as all the witnesses are police personals. In these circumstances, a case for grant of pre-arrest bail to the applicant on point of further enquiry and malafide is obviously made out.

7. In view of above, the interim pre-arrest bail already granted to the applicant is confirmed on same terms and conditions.

8. The instant bail application is disposed of accordingly.
