Mr. Muhammad Arif, advocate for the petitioner.

Learned counsel has challenged the civil proceedings on various grounds. However, he has not been able to appreciate that an Executing Court is not supposed to hear anything contrary to the judgment and decree as long as the judgment and decree is in force. Irrespective of its correctness the Executing Court has to follow it. Therefore, whatever application is moved before Executing Court was beyond the jurisdiction of Executing Court and application was rightly dismissed. Therefore, no constitutional petition lies, same is dismissed alongwith listed applications.
