For orders as to maintainability :

12.11.2021 :

None present for the petitioner.

—————

On 03.11.2021, when the petitioners and their counsel were absent, the following order was passed :

“ This matter case has been called twice since morning, but the petitioner and her counsel remained absent on both occasions although the name of the counsel has appeared in the cause list. Prima facie, it appears that this petition has been filed against the law laid down in Abdul Hameed and another V/S Province of Sindh through Secretary Home Department and 8 others, PLD 2019 Sindh 168. Petitioner and her counsel are directed to satisfy the Court on the next date of hearing regarding the maintainability of this petition in view of the above. If none appears or the question of maintainability of this petition is not addressed on the next date of hearing, the petition shall be dismissed. To be listed on 12.11.2021. Let an intimation notice for the next date be issued to the petitioner’s counsel.”

Despite the above order, no one is present on behalf of the petitioner to assist the Court. The matter has been called twice since morning, but the petitioner and her counsel remained absent on both occasions without any intimation although the name of the counsel has appeared in the cause list. It appears that they have lost interest in pursuing this petition, which is accordingly dismissed alongwith pending application with no order as to costs.
