Qazi Hifz-ur-Rehman, Advocate for the Petitioners.
Mr.Shaharyar Mehar, Assistant Advocate General.
None present for the respondent No.1

Muhammad Ali Mazhar, J: Learned counsel for the petitioners argued that this revision has been preferred against the order dated 31.10.2019 passed by IVth Additional District Judge (MCAC), Karachi Central in Civil Revision No.64 of 2018.

2. The learned trial court allowed the application filed under 12(2) CPC and set-aside the judgment and decree dated 17.8.2016, which was passed in favour of the petitioners. Learned counsel for the petitioners argued that the revisional court maintained the order passed by learned trial court against that this petition has been preferred.

3. Today learned counsel for the petitioners on instructions submits that they have no objection, if the suit proceeds on merits by the learned trial court. Learned counsel further submits that the suit was filed in 2015, therefore, some directions may be issued to the trial court for early disposal of the suit. The request seems to be reasonable. Learned Assistant Advocate General also proposed that some directions may be issued to the learned trial court to expedite the proceedings. Despite service through the learned trial court the respondent No.1 is called absent. The report of the learned VIIIth Senior Civil Judge dated 18.03.2020 is available on record.

4. In view of the above statement, this petition along with pending application is dispose of with the directions to the learned trial court to decide the pending Suit No.972/2015 preferably within a period of six months in accordance with law.
