Fresh Case

1. For order on Misc. No.7863/2021.
2. For hearing of main petition.

16.03.2021

Mr. M. Farrukh Shaikh, Advocate for the Petitioners.

1. Urgency granted.
2. Apparently the petitioners claim to be the president and general secretary of a welfare association. They have claimed the compensation for the family of one Chiragh Baloch who has allegedly expired due to negligence and carelessness of the respondents. First of all if the legal heirs of Chiragh Baloch are aggrieved and they want to claim compensation, this is their personal right to lodge the proceedings but in our view the petitioners have no individual right to file this petition. Even otherwise the compensation can be claimed in the suit not through a constitution petition. After arguing at some length, the counsel for the petitioners does not want to press this petition and seeks time to file appropriate remedy in accordance with the law. Petition is disposed of accordingly.
