

ORDER SHEET
IN THE HIGH COURT OF SINDH, CIRCUIT COURT, HYDERABAD

IInd Appeal No.06 of 2008

DATE

ORDER WITH SIGNATURE OF JUDGE

For hearing of C.M.A. No. 388/2010

29.01.2021

This application was filed by the appellant for restoration of this appeal which was dismissed on 18.11.2009 for non-prosecution.

Record shows that no one has appeared in this case on behalf of the appellant after 28.08.2014. As learned counsel for the appellant had passed away, several notices were issued directly to the appellant. As per the reports submitted by the bailiff, the appellant has shifted from the given address. It is the duty of the parties to submit their complete and correct address and also to inform the court in case of any change therein. In case incorrect or incomplete address is given by the parties or they fail to inform the court regarding any change therein, they shall have to suffer the consequences of non-service of notice. In the present case, the appellant did not bother to engage another counsel after the demise of his counsel and he also failed to submit his fresh / new address for service. In view of the above, this application, which is pending since last more than eleven (11) years, is dismissed with no other as to costs.
