Ms. Anosha Abdul Wahab for applicant.

-.-.-

In a summary suit pending in the Court of XI-Additional District Judge Karachi East, conditional leave was granted to the applicant who admitted the signatures on the dishonored cheques. Irrespective of the amount involved and irrespective of the fact whether applicant could furnish surety of the amount, as directed by the trial Court, there is no justification in interfering in the order of the trial Court which has exercised its jurisdiction/discretion by extending the leave subject to furnishing solvent surety in the sum of Rs.7.5 Million, which amount is equivalent to the amount of dishonored cheques involved in the summary suit. The applicant, apart from the fact that financially he is not in a position to furnish solvent surety, has not submitted any tenable ground to interfere in the impugned order. Financial position of the applicant is immaterial as far as grant of conditional leave is concerned. The Revision Application is accordingly dismissed along with listed applications.
