4. For orders on CMA No.1317/21

Dated: 08.07.2021

Mr. S. Ehsan Raza for appellant.

-.-.-

Plaintiffs in the suit who have been arrayed as respondents filed Suit No.1050 of 2018 on the strength of certain leases. Interim order was operating however on 19.05.2021 impugned order was passed and interim restraining order was confirmed which was originally passed on 31.05.2018. Since last three years interim was operating and in terms of the impugned order the possession of respondents/plaintiffs was confirmed and it was ordered that they (respondents/plaintiffs) may not be dispossess, naturally, without due process of law.

We do not see any error in the impugned order. Before leases could be adjudicated to be genuine or fake, these respondents who are plaintiffs in the suit should not be dispossessed without due process of law and that is the impugned order. Appellant may however seek early disposal of the suit by moving appropriate applications including the one for recording of evidence etc. However, no interference at this stage is required. Instant High Court Appeal is accordingly dismissed in limine along with listed applications.
