Mr. Muhammad Arif, Advocate for the Petitioner

-o-o-o-

1-2] The petition is filed against the respondents challenging issuance of CNICs to respondents No.5 to 7. No material available on record except affidavit of one Abdul Hadi that subject CNIC was procured on the basis of CNIC of his father. There is nothing available on record to convince this court that such CNICs were issued unlawfully by NADRA. Even otherwise, dispute of same private respondents claimed to be members of the a welfare association who are opposing the petitioner in affairs of the association, cannot be settled in the proceedings under Article 199 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan 1973. Accordingly instant petition being misconceived is dismissed a/w pending applications.
