The goods Hazelnut spread/Choc Knock was being imported as being importable, however, the only discrepancy and the question is as to whether it should be released on the basis of valuation which was issued prior to 90 days or should it be released on deposit of the amount, such questions are pending before the Director Valuation and hence till such controversy is decided he seeks release of the goods on securing the differential value. With the consent of learned counsel appearing for the respondent and without prejudice to the outcome of the decision let goods be released on securing the differential amount between his declaration and the valuation ruling with the Nazir of this court. On securing the amount a certificate be issued by the Nazir and on its presentation to the concerned authority the goods be released. We expect that the decision shall be made by the Director Valuation in four weeks. The petition, however, is disposed of along with pending applications. The compliance report be filed soon-after the four weeks.
