

ORDER SHEET
IN THE HIGH COURT OF SINDH AT KARACHI

CP D No.7408 of 2018

Date	Order with Signature of Judge(s)
------	----------------------------------

Disposed of matter

For hearing of CMA No.60036/2019.

18.04.2022

Mr. Abbas Rasheed Razvi, Advocate, appearing for the counsel for the petitioner.

Mr. Ghulam Hyder Shaikh, Advocate for the petitioner.

-----

This is review application in respect of order dated 14.02.2019. The order was rendered by a Division bench of this Court, comprising of Muhammad Ali Mazhar J and myself, however, post elevation of Muhammad Ali Mazhar J to the august Supreme Court this matter has been marked to be considered by me. The petitioner appears not to be aggrieved by the relevant order, as the review application has been signed by his counsel and the same is the case with the accompanying affidavit. It is submitted that neither the petitioner nor the counsel is aggrieved with the order per se, however, the observations with regard to the conduct of the counsel appearing for the petitioner are perhaps of grievance to the said counsel himself.

At the very onset, applicant's counsel was confronted to identify any mistake / error apparent on the face of the record. Counsel submitted that there was no mistake / error apparent and even the narrative contained in the paragraphs 5 and 6 of the relevant order were not disputed, however, it was requested that the pertinent observations be revisited nonetheless.

It is clear that the jurisdiction of this Court in review proceedings is limited to the ambit of Section 114 read with Order 47 CPC. The entire thrust of the arguments advanced by the applicant's counsel was directed towards re-agitating a matter already addressed vide paragraphs 5 and 6 of the relevant order, the veracity whereof was never in dispute and there was absolutely no effort to identify any mistake or error apparent on the face of the record or any other sufficient reason justifying a review of the Order. This Court has duly appraised the contents of the present application and the arguments advanced by the applicant's counsel and is of the considered opinion that no grounds for review have been made out. The applicant has not demonstrated the discovery of any new and important matter which could not have been addressed earlier; has failed to identify any mistake apparent on the face of record; and finally no reason has been advanced to justify the review of the order. It is thus the considered view of this Court that this application is devoid of merit, hence, the same is hereby dismissed.

JUDGE