2.	For hearing of main case.

Mr. Farhan Ahmed Bozdar, Advocate for the applicants.

The facts in brief necessary for disposal of instant criminal revision application are that the applicants allegedly committed death of pregnant elk for that they were booked accordingly. At trial, they sought for their pre-mature acquittal by making such application, it was dismissed by learned IVth Additional Sessions Judge, Dadu vide order dated 22.05.2021 which is impugned by the applicants before this Court by preferring the instant revision application.

It is contended by learned counsel for the applicants that the applicants being innocent have been involved in this case falsely and there would be no probability of their conviction even after full dressed trial. By contending so, he sought for setting aside of the impugned order with acquittal of the applicants.

Learned Deputy Prosecutor General, Sindh who is assisted by the complainant by supporting the impugned order has sought for dismissal of instant revision application by contending that there is every possibility of the conviction of the applicants with the offence with which they are charged.

Heard arguments and perused the record.

The applicants have been booked for the alleged incident, on the basis of video recording; it takes supports from all ancillary evidence. In that situation, it would be pre-mature to say that the applicants being innocent have been involved in this case falsely by the complainant. No doubt, pre-mature acquittal of the accused involved in incident is permissible at law but it could not be recorded by denying the right of fair trial to the complainant/prosecution, which apparently is guaranteed under Article 10-A of the constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973. No wrong has been committed by learned Trial Court by dismissing the application of the applicants for their pre-mature acquittal, which may justify this Court to make interference with the impugned order.

In view of above, the instant revision application is dismissed.
