

IN THE HIGH COURT OF SINDH,
AT KARACHI

C. P. No. D-3089 of 2022

Present:

Ahmed Ali M. Shaikh, CJ
and Yousuf Ali Sayeed, J

Petitioners : Aleem-ud-din Qureshi &
another through Nasir Rizwan
Khan, Advocate.

Respondents : Nemo.

Date of hearing : 30.05.2022.

ORDER

YOUSUF ALI SAYEED, J. - The Petitioners have invoked the jurisdiction of this Court under Article 199 of the Constitution, impugning the Order made on 13.04.2022 by the learned VIth Additional District & Sessions Judge/Model Civil Appellate Court-Ext: Karachi Central, dismissing Civil Revision Application No.118/2021 filed by the Petitioner against the Orders of the learned IVth Senior Civil Judge, Karachi, Central dated 08.10.2021 and 16.11.2021, whereby the Applications under Order XXI Rule 83 CPC and under Section 152 & 153 CPC filed by them in Civil Suit No.1448/2019 were dismissed.

A perusal of the underlying applications reflects that the Petitioners had sought suspension of the auction proceedings in respect of House No.9/242, Liaquatabad, Karachi, whilst seeking to impose their own payment schedule, whilst simultaneously seeking that the underlying judgment be modified so as to reduce the percentage of profit awarded from 15% to between 1% to 3% on the basis that the lesser amount was commensurate with what was granted in other countries/jurisdictions. As such, no valid ground or reason was even advanced in support thereof. Both the applications thus came to be dismissed, as aforementioned, and the ensuing the Revision Application also same fate.

Having considered the matter we are of the view that both the applications were bereft of substance, and on query posed, as to what perversity or illegality afflicted the Orders of the fora below, learned counsel for the Petitioner was at loss to offer any cogent argument.

That being so, the Petition appears to be misconceived, with no case for interference being made out. Hence, while granting the application for urgency, we dismiss the Petition in limine along with other pending miscellaneous applications.
