ORDER

ADNAN-UL-KARIM MEMON, J.- Through instant petition, the petitioner has prayed for issuance of writ of prohibition to the police authorities restraining them from harassing the petitioner at the behest of private respondents and also provide protection to him as well as his family members.

Learned counsel for petitioner submits that private respondents 6 to 10 are also residing in the village of petitioner who are criminal type of persons and use to occupy the lands of persons in the vicinity and further they have also evil eyes upon the land and plot of petitioner. It is further submitted that the above private respondents barged in the house of petitioner for which he approached the police authorities for protection as well as for restraining the private respondents not to harass him but they did not pay any heed, hence he has filed the instant petition.

Upon notice the official respondents have also filed comments stating that the petitioner has neither approached them for any protection and for taking action against the private respondents for causing him harassment; however, they are ready to provide protection to him if he approaches them for such protection.

In view of the above, instant petition is disposed of with direction to the official respondents are directed to act strictly in accordance with law.
