Plaintiffs in person.

Sardar Sultan Jehangir Khan for defendants No.1 to 4.

- 1) Urgency granted.
- 2) This is an application for unconditional withdrawal of suit filed by legal heirs of deceased Aamir Abdullah who died in factory. Legal heirs have filed this suit for recovery of compensation under Fatal Accident Act, 1855. The application for unconditional withdrawal of the suit, as filed, is supported by affidavits of plaintiff No.1 however affidavits of plaintiffs No.2, 3 and 5 are filed in Court, which are taken on record whereas plaintiff No.4 Sufiyan Aamir was and is minor. Plaintiffs claim to have settled their dispute with the defendants out of Court amicably. Plaintiff Sufiyan Aamir is minor and is being represented by his mother Mamoon Amna widow of Aamir Abdullah, plaintiff No.5. She is being appointed as Guardian ad-litem under the law as she is claimed to have been acting bona fide for the interests of the minor. Since it is out of Court settlement, the application is allowed and the suit is dismissed as not pressed by all plaintiffs including plaintiff No.4 on whose behalf plaintiff No.5 has appeared as guardian ad-litem.
