On filing of this Petition and issuance of notices, comments have been filed by the respective Respondents. Insofar as the comments of Respondent No.3 are concerned, it has been stated that neither the appointment nor retirement is established from the record of Respondent No.3. Insofar as the Respondent / Administrator, District Council, Khairpur is concerned, today written statement has been filed that no documents have been received by them in respect of retirement benefits and pension as claimed. It further appears that according to the Petitioner's own case, who had been appointed in 1992 and retired in 2014, whereas, this Petition has been filed in 2021. The Petitioner has also failed to place on record his appointment order as well as requisite documents as required by the Respondents. In view of such position, we cannot entertain this Petition. However, the Petitioner is at liberty to approach the concerned Department for redressal of his grievance. Accordingly, the Petition stands dismissed.
