1&2. Learned counsel states that appeal filed by the petitioner before the Commissioner (Appeals) is pending and the stay granted therein has expired on 18.03.2022 and thereafter no further stay has been granted on the stay application, which is causing serious prejudice to the petitioner. Since the appeal is pending, we direct the Commissioner Inland Revenue (Appeals) to decide the same in accordance with law within 60 days' time from date of receipt of this order and during such period no coercive measures for recovery be adopted.

Petition stands disposed of along with pending application.
