Mr. Khalid Hussain, Advocate for the petitioner.
-----

1. Urgency granted.

2-4. The counsel for the petitioner in the instant matter states that the petitioner is aggrieved in respect of the transfer of the respondents No.5, 6, 7 & 8.

At the very outset, the counsel is directed to satisfy the Court with regard to the maintainability of the instant petition, to which he states that the petitioner is aggrieved due to the transfer of the aforesaid respondents.

The counsel has been heard and record has been perused.

On the face of it, this petition does not seem to be maintainable as firstly the transfer comes under the terms of service and if the respondents No.5 to 8 have been transferred, how the petitioner could be said to be an aggrieved person in this regard. Moreover, if this petition is considered to be a petition of "quo warranto", the contents of the same clearly reveals that the petitioner has termed himself as an aggrieved person and has stated that since he is the senior most person, it was his right to be posted on the posts now being held by these respondents. Hence on both these aspects as agitated by the petitioner this petition is not maintainable, the same therefore stands dismissed in limine alongwith listed applications.
