Admittedly, appellant is registered with NARA bearing registration slip No. 109794/655343 he has family, wife is present in Court and both have four issues. He was arrested on the plea that CNIC or NARA registration card is not available with him. Trial Court has contended that accused failed to produce NARA Card, whereas accused also claiming that he is Pakistani by birth, his father grave is in Yasinabad graveyard; his wife's mother is also residing in Karachi. Claim of the prosecution that he entered from Wahgah Border in Pakistan is not substantiated by any evidence except the plea that he is not having CNIC as well as other circumstantial evidence are not gathered by the prosecution, hence, by extending benefit of doubt, impugned judgment is set aside; appellant is acquitted from the charge.
