- 2. For order on MA No.1914/2022
- 3. For hearing of main case.
- 4. For order on MA No.1915/2022

28.02.2022

Mr. Aamir Mansoob Qureshi advocate.

.....

1. Urgency granted.

2. Exemption granted subject to all just legal exceptions.

3&4. It is inter alia contended that there are a number of civil litigations pending before this court between complainant side and accused party, instant matter is purely of civil nature but complainant side has turned it into criminal proceedings to blackmail and pressurize the applicant; that this court has discretionary powers to stay criminal proceedings where civil litigations are pending on same issue between same parties; that applicant filed application u/s 249-A CrPC before trial court which was dismissed through impugned order which is illegal and not sustainable as no case was made out against applicant and there is no reasonable ground to believe that applicant has committed the offence alleged rather there exist sufficient grounds for acquittal of applicant.

Be that as it may, issue notice to P.G. Sindh as well complainant through trial court for 07.03.2022.
