==

The applicants on conclusion of trial was convicted under section 380, 457 and 427 P.P.C and sentenced to various terms of imprisonment with fine with benefit of section 382-B Cr.P.C by learned 2nd Judicial Magistrate Johi vide Judgment dated 09.12.2021, it was impugned by the applicants by preferring an appeal, it was dismissed by learned 1st Additional Sessions Judge/MCTC, Dadu, vide judgment dated 19.02.2022, which is impugned by the applicants before this Court by preferring the instant criminal revision application, and in the meanwhile, they have sought for suspension of the sentence awarded to them and their release on bail.

It is contended by learned counsel for the applicants aggregate sentence awarded to the applicants is spreading over three years with fine which is short one; the applicants have already remained in jail for 8 months and hearing of a revision application of the applicants is likely to take time. By contending so, they sought for suspension of the sentence and release of the applicants on bail.

Learned Deputy Prosecutor General for the State has recorded no objection to release of the applicants on bail pending disposal of their revision application.

Heard arguments and perused the record.

Obviously the aggregate conviction/sentence awarded to the applicants being three years with fine is short one; they have already remained in jail for about eight months and hearing of their revision application is likely to take time, therefore, while relying upon case of Abdul Hameed Vs. Muhammad Abdullah and others (1999 SCMR-2589), the sentence awarded to the applicants is suspended, consequently, they are admitted to bail subject to their furnishing surety in sum of Rs.50,000/- each and P.R bonds in the like amount to the satisfaction of Additional Registrar of this Court.

Listed application (M.A.No.2207/2022) is disposed of accordingly.

Adjourned to date in office for hearing of revision application.
