Mr. Ali Gohar Masroof, advocate for applicant.

At the outset, leaned counsel for the applicant contends that application under Order XXXVII rule 3 CPC was allowed with the condition to submit solvent surety to the equivalent amount of three disputed cheques. He attempted to submit surety but the same was not accepted with the condition that he shall deposit cash amount. Since order is very categorical, which speaks solvent surety; accordingly, trial court shall accept the same and allow the applicant to file written statement and contest the case. Pursuant to impugned order if any step taken by the court shall not come in the way of this order. In case, the respondent is aggrieved with this order, he may file application and establish his plea.

In the above terms instant Civil Revision is allowed.
