20.12.2021

Mr. Ramzan Tabassum advocate

.....

1. Urgency granted.

2&3. It is inter alia contended that plaintiff is lawful owner and in possession of the subject matter property, he entered into sale transaction with defendants No.1 and 2, received advance amount of Rs.15,00,000/- and executed necessary documents in the office of defendants No.3 to 5 in favour of defendant No.1; however the defendants only handed over the original pay orders of Rs.122,00,000/- and when plaintiff asked them to pay full remaining amount of Rs.15,500,000/-, defendants No.1 and 2 disclosed that remaining original pay orders are lying in their office which they could not bring mistakenly and asked the plaintiff to come with them and collect those pay orders from their office; when plaintiff reached their office defendants showered him a pistol and asked him to leave their office and forget about remaining payment.

Issue notice to defendants for 27.01.2022. Meanwhile defendants No.3, 4 and 5 are hereby retrained from transferring the subject matter property and shall not hand over the transfer letter to defendant No.1 and 2 till next date of hearing.
