Urgency is granted.

The petitioner, by preferring instant petition in year 2022 has sought for direction against the respondents to appoint her in Education & Literacy Department Government of Sindh on deceased quota basis for the reason that her father being clerk in above said Department died in year 2006 during service. The petitioner became entitled to be appointed in civil service in year 2010, on attaining majority. Why she slept over her cause for about 12 years? No plausible explanation to such delay is offered by her. Consequently, the instant petition being hit by laches miserably is dismissed in limine together with listed application.
