Application in disposed of matter

For hearing of CMA No.165/2013

19-09-2022

None present.

This is an application filed by applicant No.1(b) for return of original documents, which have been referred to in the application, on the ground that the instant revision application has been disposed of; therefore, the same are no more required by this Court.

It appears that the said documents were filed by the said applicant, and since the matter has already disposed of, there is no impediment in allowing this application. Hence, this application is allowed by directing the applicant to place on record photocopies of the same. Thereafter, office is directed to return the said original documents to the applicant after proper identification and verification as per rules.

The listed application stands disposed of in the above terms.
