Date of hearing: 10.08.2022.

Date of Decision: 10.08.2022.

J U D G M E N T

AMJAD ALI SAHITO, J. Through this Criminal Jail Appeal, the appellant has challenged the judgment dated 29.11.2021, passed by learned 1st Additional Sessions Judge/MCTC, Badin in Special Narcotics Case No.20 of 2021, Crime No.09 of 2021 registered at PS Rajo Khanani for the offence under section 9 (c) CNS Act, 1997, whereby the appellant was convicted and sentenced for the offence u/s 9 (c) CNS Act, 1997 for possessing 2460 grams of charas to undergo R.I. for five years and six months and pay fine to the tune of Rs.25,000/-; in case of default to undergo S.I. for five months and fifteen days more. However, the benefit of section 382-B Cr.P.C. was extended to the appellant.

2. Learned counsel for the appellant, at the very outset, has stated that the appellant has remained in Jail for sufficient period and still is being dragged in the instant case; as such, he does not wish to contest this Criminal Jail Appeal and leave the appellant at the mercy of the Court. He states that if this Court while maintaining the conviction reduces the sentence to one he has already undergone, he would not press the Criminal Jail Appeal.

3. On the other hand, learned Additional Prosecutor General Sindh concedes that the appellant has remained behind the bars for sufficient period and learned the lesson, therefore, he has no objection if a lenient view is taken against him by dismissing the instant Criminal Jail Appeal and treating the sentence to one as already undergone.

4. We have heard the learned counsel for the appellant, learned A.P.G. for the State and have gone through the record. The witnesses have supported each other on all salient features of the case and there appears to be no worthwhile contradictions. However, the offence pertains to the year 2021. The appellant is behind the bars since 18.04.2021. The Jail Roll of the appellant was called from the concerned Jail, which reflects that the appellant has served out two years, eleven months and three days including remission. The appellant has remained in jail and learned the lesson as he has undergone sufficient period of his sentence. The punishment provided for the same is upto five years and six months, therefore, there is no legal impediment in accepting request of learned counsel for the appellant. Consequently, while taking leniency, instant Criminal Jail Appeal is dismissed but with the reduction of his sentence to one as already undergone by the appellant including fine amount. In view of the above position, the office is directed to issue a release writ for the appellant if he is not required in any other custody case.

5. Instant Criminal Jail Appeal is dismissed with the above modification.
