AMJAD ALI SAHITO, J. Through this Criminal Jail Appeal, the appellant has challenged the judgment dated 03.12.2021, passed by learned 1st Additional Sessions Judge/MCTC Judge, Badin in Special Case No.15 of 2020, Crime No.51 of 2020 registered at Tando Ghulam Ali for the offence under section 9 (c) CNS Act, 1997, whereby the appellant was convicted and sentenced for the offence u/s 9 (c) CNS Act, 1997 for possessing 405 grams of chars and 635 grams of opium, total weight of case property 1040 grams to undergo R.I. for one year and six months with fine to the tune of Rs.11,000/-; in case of default to undergo S.I. for four months more; and, R.I. for one year and eight months with fine of Rs.7000/-; in default to undergo S.I. for four months. However, the benefit of section 382-B Cr.P.C. was extended to the appellant.

2. Appellant is called absent. Jail Roll was also called from Central Prison, Hyderabad. The Jail Roll of the appellant also depicts that the appellant has been released after completion of sentence on 15.08.2022, therefore, it appears that this is the reason for not pursuing his appeal by the appellant but chosen to remain absent. Consequently, instant appeal has become infructuous, which is accordingly disposed as having become infructuous.
