Mr. S. Kashif Hussain Shah for petitioner.

This petition is filed on the count that the Chief Secretary be directed to decide appeal pending before him, which petitioner has filed for redress of certain grievances.

We have heard the counsel. Petitioner has already exhausted the remedy before the appropriate forum by filing an appeal which may be decided within the requisite period, which period has not yet lapsed. Perhaps even after lapse of requisite period petitioner has adequate and efficacious remedy, which he could avail. Accordingly, petition being misconceived is dismissed along with listed applications.
