Irshad Ali Shah, J;- It is alleged that the applicants with rest of the culprits robbed complainant Nadir Khan and his witnesses of their motorcycle and other belongings, for that the present case was registered.

2. The applicants on having been refused bail by learned IIIrd Additional Sessions Judge Khairpur; have sought for the same from this Court by way of instant Crl. Bail Application u/s 497 Cr.P.C.

3. Heard arguments and perused the record.

4. The FIR of the incident has been lodged with delay of about 06 days, such delay has not explained plausibly could not be overlooked. There is no recovery of any sort from the applicants; the case has finally been challaned and there is no likelihood of absconion or tempering with the evidence on the part of applicants, who even otherwise are said to be in custody since six months. In these circumstance; a case for release of the applicants on bail, on point of further inquiry obviously is made out.

7. In view of above the applicants are admitted to bail subject to their furnishing solvent surety in sum of Rs.50,000/- (fifty thousand) each and P.R bond in the like amount to the satisfaction of learned trial Court.

8. The instant bail application is disposed of accordingly.
