Irshad Ali Shah, J. It is alleged that the applicant with rest of the culprits robbed the complainant Muhammad Shahzad of his belonging, for that the present case was registered. On refusal of bail by learned IIIrd Additional Sessions Judge, Ghotki; the applicant has sought for the same from this Court by way of instant Crl. Bail Application under section 497 Cr.P.C.

2. Heard arguments and perused the record.

3. The FIR of the incident has been lodged with delay of about six days; such delay having not been explained plausibly could not be over looked. It was night time incident; therefore identity of the applicant by the complainant with parentage being stranger is somewhat surprising. The case has finally been challaned and there is no likelihood of absconsion or tempering with the evidence on part of the applicant. In these circumstance; a case for release of the applicant on bail, on point of further inquiry obviously is made out.

4. In view of above the applicant is admitted to bail subject to his furnishing solvent surety in sum of Rs.50,000/- (Fifty thousand) and P.R bond in the like amount to the satisfaction of learned trial Court.

5. The instant bail application is disposed of accordingly.
