Learned counsel for the petitioners, under instructions, submits that petitioners do not want to press instant petitions and submits that petitioners will seek remedy available under the law, whereas, during pendency of instant petitions, they have been removed from service and have filed departmental appeals, which are pending.

Accordingly, instant petitions stand dismissed as not pressed alongwith listed applications. However, the petitioners may be at liberty to seek further remedy, as may be available to them, in accordance with law.

ACTING CHIEF JUSTICE
