

ORDER SHEET
IN THE HIGH COURT OF SINDH,
CIRCUIT COURT, HYDERABAD.

C.P.No.S— 828 of 2022

DATE

ORDER WITH SIGNATURE OF JUDGE

14.11.2023.

Present petition was dismissed for non-prosecution vide order dated 06.03.2023 and the same order is reproduced as under:

“None present.

The diary of Additional Registrar dated 19.01.2023 shows that after filing of instant petition on 5.11.2022 neither the petitioner nor his counsel appeared even to comply with the office objection, such notice was fixed on the notice board of this Court, but none appeared; which shows that perhaps they have lost interest in the matter. Accordingly, the instant petition is dismissed for non-prosecution along with all pending application”.

The present application seeks restoration of the petition and the only ground pleaded / articulated is that counsel had not assisted the client properly. Respectfully, the same could not be qualified as a justification to recall the dismissal order recorded supra. In view whereof, it is observed that no case has been made out to restore present petition, therefore, the restoration application is hereby dismissed.
