It is contended by learned counsel for the applicant that the applicant on having been involved in the present case sought for pre-arrest bail, the interim pre-arrest bail was granted to him, it was recalled with dismissal of his Bail Application on account of his failure to attend the learned trial Court, his absence was not willful but beyond his control. By contending so, he sought for pre-arrest bail for the applicant.

It is suggested by learned DPG for the State that since the Bail Application of the applicant has not been disposed by learned trial Court on merits; therefore, it would be in the fitness of the circumstances to direct the learned trial Court to dispose of the same on merits. Suggestion advanced by learned DPG for the State was promptly accepted by learned counsel for the applicant and the complainant.

In view of above, it is ordered that the Bail Application of the applicant would be deemed to be pending before learned trial Court as it was before its formal dismissal to be disposed of on its merits after providing chance of hearing to all concerned.

Instant Bail Application is disposed of accordingly.
