Irshad Ali Shah, J. It is alleged that the applicant with rest of the culprits in furtherance of their common intention besides insulting and threatening complainant Mst. Ghulam Sughra of her murder, torn her shirt from her arm, for that the present case was registered.

2. The applicant on having been refused bail by learned IInd Additional Sessions Judge/Gender Based Violence Court, Sukkur, has sought for the same from this Court by way of instant Crl. Bail Application u/s 497 Cr.P.C.

3. It is contended by learned counsel for the applicant that the applicant being innocent has been involved in this case falsely by the police; therefore, he is entitled to be released on bail on point of further inquiry, which is not opposed by learned DPG for the State; however, the complainant has opposed the release of the applicant on bail by contending that there is apprehension of repetition of the offence.

4. Heard arguments and perused the record.

5. Apparently, the applicability of section 354-A PPC is calling for its determination at trial. The rest of the penal sections applied in FIR are not falling within the prohibitory clause. The applicant is in custody for more than six months. The case has finally been challaned. There is no likelihood of absconsion or tampering with the evidence on the part of applicant. In these circumstances the case for the release of applicant on bail on point of further enquiry is made out.

6. In view of above, the applicant is admitted to bail subject to his furnishing solvent surety in sum of Rs.50,000/- (Fifty thousand) and P.R bond in the like amount to the satisfaction of learned trial Court.

7. The instant bail application is disposed of accordingly.
