15-01-2024.

Mr. Muzaffar Ali Dehraj, advocate for the applicant.

1. Granted.
2. Over ruled.
3. Granted subject to all just legal exceptions.
4. The applicant being NaibQasid for committing theft of medicines to large extent from District Hospital NaushahroFeroze was booked accordingly by lodgment of an FIR with PS NaushahroFeroze. On having been involved in such case, he sought for pre-arrest bail by filing such application. Initially he was admitted interim pre arrest bail, subsequently such relief was recalled with dismissal of his bail application by learned IInd Additional Sessions Judge, NaushahroFeroze by making an observation that the applicant is a public servant; therefore, the FIR so lodged against him with regular police station to be returned to be presented before the Special Judge Anti-Corruption, Sukkur. It is in these circumstances, the applicant has sought for pre arrest bail from this Court by way of listed application. Admittedly the applicant is a public servant; therefore, his case is relating to schedule offence, it is to be looked into by Special Court Anti-Corruption Sukkur. For relief of pre-arrest bail or otherwise, the applicant has to approach such Court in first instance accordingly. Consequently, the instant bail application of the applicant approaching this Court directly for grant of pre arrest bail without exhausting the remedy available to him at law, is dismissed in limine.
