Mr. Tariq Ali Jiskani, Advocate for the Petitioner.

YOUSUF ALI SAYEED, J.- The Petitioner has invoked the jurisdiction of this Court under Article 199 of the Constitution impugning the purported grant of permission for establishment of a wine shop on the ground that the vicinity in question is inhabited predominantly by persons who are Muslims.

A perusal of the Petition reflects that neither the shop in question nor its proprietor have been impleaded as Respondents. Furthermore, on query posed, learned counsel conceded that no permission / license had in fact been issued as yet. Under the circumstances, we are of the view that the Petition is misconceived.

That being so, whilst granting the application for urgency, we dismiss the Petition in limine along with other pending miscellaneous applications.
