Mr. M. Tahir Durrani, Advocate for the Petitioner.

YOUSUF ALI SAYEED, J.- The Petitioner has invoked the jurisdiction of this Court under Article 199 of the Constitution assailing the process of recruitment set to be undertaken by the Sindh Katchi Abadi Authority, whilst impugning all advertisements issued and appointments made in that regard. However, albeit having impleaded the aforesaid authority and some of its functionaries, the Petitioners have failed to implead any person said to have been appointed and whose interest are likely to be affected in the matter. Furthermore, the Petition is bereft of any cogent ground warranting interference, with it merely being stated in general terms that the process has been conducted in a mala fide manner.

That being so, whilst granting the application for urgency, we dismiss the Petition in limine along with the other pending miscellaneous applications.
