Crl. Bail Application No.S- 331 of 2023
(Sarang Dharejo v. The State)

Mr. Rab Dino Makwal, Advocate for the applicant.
Mr. Pir Dino Balouch, Advocate for the complainant.
Mr. Aftab Ahmed Shar, Additional P.G for the State.

Date of Hearing & Order: 08-09-2023

ORDER

MUHAMMAD IQBAL KALHORO, J.: Allegedly when complainant spotted marks of violence on dead body of her mother living with her brother Ali Gohar Dharejo, she suspected that she was murdered by her sister-in-law/wife of her brother and her friend Younis Ali Bhatti, she filed an application before the Justice of Peace for registration of FIR and ultimately lodged the same nominating applicant to be accomplice of her sister-in-law, namely, Sumera.

2. FIR was registered after three months of the incident and on examination of dead body which was at advanced age of putrefaction, no external injury was found. In any case, after preliminary enquiry and the investigation, the case was challaned and the applicant was arrested on 28.07.2022 and is in jail.

3. Learned counsel for applicant has pleaded for bail on the ground of further enquiry, whereas, learned counsel for complainant has opposed it. Learned Additional P.G has, however, submitted that this is a case of further enquiry, as prima facie sufficient evidence connecting applicant with the offence is lacking. I do not see any reason to disagree with him. FIR is delayed by more than three months without a prima facie reasonable explanation and except a word of complainant that applicant is accomplice of the main accused, no other evidence has been collected against him in the investigation.

4. Accordingly, this bail application is allowed and applicant is admitted to post-arrest bail subject to his furnishing solvent surety in the sum of Rs.200,000/- (Two Lac) with P.R bond in the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court.

5. The observations made hereinabove are tentative in nature and shall not influence the trial Court while deciding the case on merits.
