(Taj Muhammad v. The State)

Date Order with signature of Judge

For hearing of bail application

08.05.2024

Mr. Hussain ul Aziz Khattak, advocate for the applicant
Mr. Mumtaz Ali Shah, Assistant Prosecutor General for the State

It is alleged that the applicant with the rest of the culprits robbed complainant Nasrullah of his money worth rupees thirty-five lacs, for which the present case was registered.

The applicant having been refused bail by learned Vth-Additional Sessions Judge, Karachi, South, has sought the same from this Court by way of instant bail application under Section 497 Cr.P.C.

Heard arguments and perused the record.

The FIR of the incident has been lodged with a delay of more than one month; such delay having not been explained plausibly could not be overlooked. The recovery of Rs. 1500 is alleged by the applicant to have been foisted upon him by the police. The identification parade of the applicant has been conducted on the 10th day of his actual arrest in the present case. No explanation for such delay is offered by the prosecution. Co-accused Naseem has already been admitted to bail by the learned trial Court. The case has finally been challaned. There is no likelihood of absconsion or tampering with the evidence on the part of the applicant. In these circumstances, a case for the release of the applicant on bail on the point of further inquiry is made out.

Under the given circumstances, the applicant is admitted to bail subject to his furnishing surety in the sum of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees Fifty Thousand only) and P.R bond in the like amount to the satisfaction of the learned trial Court.

Instant bail application is disposed of accordingly.
