Ms. Rukhsana Umar for petitioner.

This petition does not actually impugn an order of the Electric Inspector, which decided the controversy in respect of consumption of the units in favour of the petitioner, but the petitioner wants from the bench of this Court to be an executing Court of the order of the electric inspector.

The grievance of the petitioner perhaps seems to be that an order or decision of the Electric Inspector has not been complied with and NEPRA, being the regulator, is a best forum to agitate such grievances and petitioner and/or his counsel may consider such forum for the redressal of such grievance, if they so desires. Petition however being misconceived is dismissed along with listed applications.
