Mr. Mohsin Ali Khan Pathan for appellant.

Heard counsel and perused record.

This appeal impugns an order of 13 May, 2024 whereby Nazir was directed to re-auction the subject property as no one in pursuance of earlier bidding process has attempted to participate therein. Indeed, it is the prerogative of the auctioneer that as and when it is so deemed necessary the subject property may be put to auction, as has been done in this case via impugned order as no successful bidder came forward nor any bid was confirmed. In addition to the above there is nothing substantial available on record that the appellant was ever declared as successful or highest bidder. Appeal as such merits no consideration and is accordingly dismissed along with listed applications.
